Commentor	Date of Comment	Draft Date	Chapter &Section	Comment	Response
Virginia Cahill	9/25/2003	8/29/2003	Entire	Resource management strategies which might include short discussions of how the public trust applies could include:...Water Dependent Recreation	X Added in Introdroduction
Alex Hildebrand	10/28/2003	11/14/2003	Entire	Inadequate in addressing the protection of the broad social interest. The recreational environment is often not protected from destruction by trash dumping, violations of public safety, fires, destruction of habitat, water pollution, protection of adjacent lands from damaging trespass, etc.	N/A Some of the matters raised in the comment go beyond the public trust doctrine. For the others, Paragraph 1 of page 4 of the strategy does mention "impacts to natural resources" as a consideration. In this paragraph, concerns and overuse, misuse and poorly planned uses of recreational resources are mentioned, as are the potential possible negative impacts of increasing of visitors.
Frank Wernette	10/21/2003	11/14/2003	Recommendations	Include coordination with DFG in exploring the use of funding from the Bay-Delta Sport Fishing Enhancement Stamp to integrate new and improved public angling opportunities.	X Added to recpmmendations #9
Diana Jacobs	12/1/2003	12/2/2003	Recommendations	#4 recommendation should be clarified. Calfed products as a category includes ecosystem restoration and small structures on private land etc-lots of things that may not be appropriate for public recreation.	X Recommendation #4 was adjusted to state "appropriate"
